

The American System Vs. The British System

by Henry C. Carey

“Two systems are before the world... One looks to pauperism, ignorance, depopulation, and barbarism; the other in increasing wealth, comfort, intelligence, combination of action, and civilization. One looks towards universal war; the other towards universal peace.

“One is the English system; the other we may be proud to call the American system, for it is the only one ever devised the tendency of which was that of elevating while equalizing the condition of man throughout the world.

“Such is the true mission of the people of these United States... To raise the value of labour throughout the world, we need only to raise the value of our own...”
