

Woods System

German courts against the establishment of the supranational “Euro” currency. Professor Hankel outlined his own plans for replacing the bankrupt world financial system.

- Professor S. Menshikov, a member of the Russian Academy of Sciences in Moscow, laid heavy emphasis on the impact which NATO’s war against Yugoslavia has had on Russia, and its impact in burying the system of international law.

- The afternoon panel was keynoted by Helga Zepp LaRouche, founder of the Schiller Institute. She was followed by Prof. D. Kaushik, an historian from the Jawaharlal Nehru University of New Delhi, India, and then Prof. Qiang Jing, from the Chinese Academy for Social Sciences in Beijing.

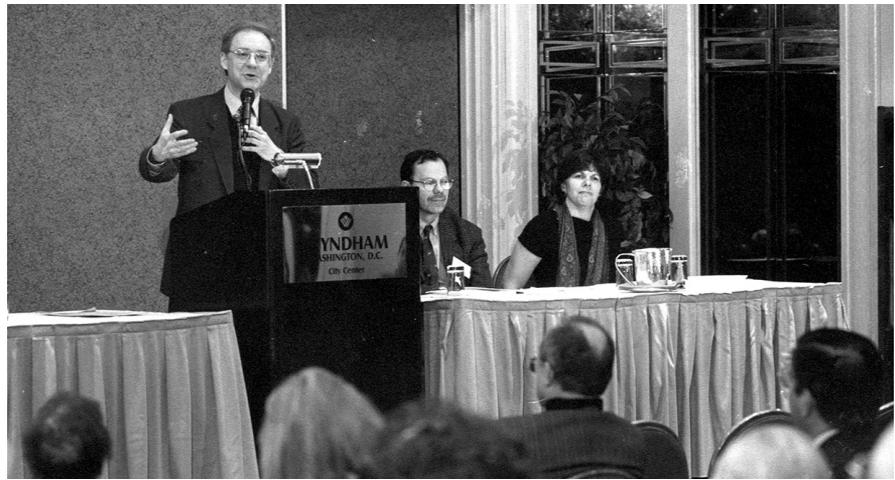

- In his remarks, Prof. Qian said that the Asia financial crisis of 1997 did not surprise China, because they were familiar with bubble economies within their own nation. And “secondly, we kept in contact with the Schiller Institute, from 1994 until today. Since 1994,

Please turn to page 74

EIRNS/Maria Schmitz

Faris Nanic, Secretary General of Bosnia’s Party of Democratic Action in Croatia, and Initiating Signer of the “Call for Peace Through Development for the Balkans,” comments from the floor.

EIRNS/Stuart Lewis

Dr. Jonathan Tennenbaum discusses U.S. cooperation with China, Russia, and India. Seated: Michael Liebig and moderator Debra Freeman.

U.S. Must Join ‘Survivors’ Club’

An EIR-Schiller Institute seminar in Washington, D.C. on March 24, titled, “Why President Clinton Must Ally the U.S.A. with the Survivors’ Club,” convened at approximately the same time that U.S. and NATO aircraft began bombing Yugoslavia. The event was attended by some 100 people, representing about a dozen nations.

Dr. Jonathan Tennenbaum pointed to a crucial issue at the center of this crisis: U.S. policy toward China, and toward the emerging cooperation among Russia, China, India, and other nations which are forming what LaRouche calls the “Survivors’ Club,” in order to ensure continued existence and development of their people. This has been accompanied by a drumbeat in the U.S. media aimed at destroying the cognitive faculties of Americans. There has been no respite for over a year now, beginning with the Lewinsky affair, through the impeachment, and now the McCarthyite China scare.

In fact, the Survivors’ Club nations are not enemies of the United States; on the contrary, they fervently want good relations with this country. But the “Gang of Four” on the Principals Committee (Gore, Cohen, Shelton, and Albright) want to ram through a new “globalized” NATO doctrine to target so-called “rogue states.” President Clinton was absolutely correct in warning recently that the anti-China hysteria in the U.S. can provoke a mirror-image reaction there.

It’s time, said Tennenbaum, for America to boot out the Gang of Four, and join the Survivors’ Club.

It’s Not Too Late!

Michael Liebig, Intelligence Director for EIR in Europe, reminded his audience that the first world financial crisis culminated in World War II; now, the second world financial crisis has placed us in a strategic crisis and war.

Liebig outlined an historical “case study”—the two months leading up to Hitler’s coup d’etat—to demonstrate that there was no inevitability to Hitler’s seizure of power in 1933. Quite the opposite: had key individuals, especially Gen. Kurt von Schleicher, then Chancellor, acted in time, they could have prevented Hitler’s seizure of power. Hitler and the Nazis were, for all intents and purposes, finished. The Nazi Party’s support had collapsed. It was only a determined and secret operation, run by the Anglo-American “Morgan complex,” in cahoots with their inside man, the banker Hjalmar Schacht, and combined with a failure of Hitler’s opposition to seize the opportunity, that led to the horrors which followed.